Freedom of the Press.

Our friend of the Battleboro Advance is out in a flaming article on the arrest of Dana, of the New York Sun on a charge of libel, and becomes quite excited over a matter it has misconceived.

The Sun is well known to be the most malignant, and utterly unscrupulous paper in New York, and its balmey love for the administration was turned to hatred when its editor failed to become Surveyor of the port of New York, or some similar office in the gift of the President. Hence his outrageous attacks on him. But the President has never lifted his finger or taken any steps towards silencing Dana, firmly relying upon the confidence the people have shown they have for him.

The arrest in question was for a libellous publication in relation to the affairs of the District of Columbia and not at all connected with National affairs, so that the rage of our cotemporary over the arrest, and gloating over the discomfiture of the administration is entirely gratuitous and far from the point.

Washington is situated in the District of Columbia and is, of course, the seat of the District, as well as of the Federal government, and the decision of Judge Blatchford was not on the merits of the case, but only a discharge from arrest on the grounds of illegality. Should Dana show his face in Washington, he would have an opportunity to learn the difference between liberty and license.

SOME of the State papers have spoken of Col. R. R. BRIDGERS as a "Railway king" and as opposed to the farming interests of this State in an unjust and utterly uncalled for manner. We are informed that Col. Smith refused Col. Bridgers the professional courtesy of allowing his car to run over his (Smith's) road, and that Col. B. and his friends were compelled to pay regular fare. For this breach of courtesy, Col. Smith is lauded and it is even intimated that he must be a member of the "Grange," while Col. Bridgers is derided in unkind terms.

We are opposed to monopolies of all sorts, whether railway, banking or telegraphic, but at the same time, we are in favor of railways, banks and telegraphs. Opposition to monopolies is one thing, and political attacks upon prominent officials, employed by them, is quite another. In our opposition to Railroad monopolies, do not let us forget the benefits derived from Railroads, and the services of such men as Col. Bridgers in their efforts to build up the State. Because the Weldon road is controlled by Northern capitalists, there is certainly no necessity of denouncing it as a monopoly. We could not exist without our railroads, and it people don't like the management of these roads now in operation, let them buy them or build others. There is room in this State for many more, and a charter is now in the possession of a company for a direct road from this city to Norfolk. The present Democratic Legislature granted enough charters for railroads we think, to convince any one, that lines in this State are not monopolies. This sort of talk is mostly chaff. We need railroads, and the more, the better.

In regard to Col. BRIDGERS, we have merely to say that his efforts to aid the agricultural classes in Eastern North Carolina have been constant and very beneficial. 'Tis a pity we cannot say as much of some other Railroad Presidents.

Children's Excursion.

The Washington Chronicle has instituted a series of children's excursions similar to the plan adopted last season by the New York Times. The first one occurred last Thursday, when about a thousand children were taken down the river. Abundance of food was furnished, the famous Marine band accompanied them, and not an accident occurred to mar the festivities. This is a praiseworthy action, and deserves commendation from all parties.

EDITORIAL BUDGET.

The Western and Northern counties of England were visited by severe thunder storms Wednesday, causing great damage to property and crops.

A collision between the inhabitants of Valencia and the republican troops in that city is apprehended. Descriptions from the Government forces continue.

A dispatch from Khiva says the decree issued by the Khan on the 24th ultimo, totally abolishing slavery throughout his dominions, provides that all persons held in bondage shall be made citizens or returned to their native countries.

Baron Wolverton died Thursday. His eldest son, George Grenfell Glyn, joint Secretary to the Treasury, and famous as a Parliamentary whip, will succeed to the baronetcy. It is probable that Thomas Brassey, member for Hastings, will become the whip in the House of Commons in place of Glyn, when the latter goes to the House of Lords.

Advices received from Carlist sources state that the minority in the Cortes intend to leave Madrid and go to Carthage, where they purpose establishing a separate Government. They are endeavoring to induce Senor Pi Y. Margall to accompany them. From the same source it is learned that the insurgent army at Carthage have enlisted ten thousand men of different nationalities in their cause and increased their forced contributions upon the inhabitants to $80,000. Col. Nazales left Madrid for the purpose of fomenting an insurrection in the province of Jaen. His arrest has been ordered by the Government.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

The Comptroller of the Currency has authorized the organization of the First National Bank of Ottumwa, Minnesota, with a capital of $50,000.

Hon. C. G. Gilfillan, of Pennsylvania, was at the Treasury Department Thursday looking after the result of the examination of the notes buried by the insurance cashier, Anderson, at Lambert's Bank, in Franklin, Pennsylvania, a few months since. Nearly all these notes have been identified by Treasurer Spinner's experts, and redeemed.

Commodore Ammen started last evening to the North and East to make an inspection of the navy yards, the laws of Congress providing for their inspection annually. Pending the absence of the Commodore, Commodore Reynolds will be acting Chief of the Bureau of Navigation.

The United States steamer Nipic has been ordered out of commission at New York.

Thursday afternoon a delegation of gentlemen from South Carolina, headed by General Kershaw, waited on Attorney General Williams to make an appeal in behalf of the Ku Klux now undergoing imprisonment at Albany, and those against whom charges are pending in the courts of that State. The delegation was presented by Hon. F. A. Sawyer, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, when it was represented to the Attorney General that the Ku Klux organizations of South Carolina had all disbanded, that peace and contentment reigned throughout the State, and that it was the desire of the citizens generally that those now in prison be released, and that all prosecutions now pending against others in the courts there be dismissed. It was believed that such an act would inspire the people there with still greater confidence, and give them additional faith as to the good intentions of the President toward them. The Attorney General replied that he was sure that when the President should become satisfied that peace was existing in that State and that he could with propriety do so, he would begin with the least atrocious criminals and pardon them, as it was the wish of the Administration to deal as leniently as possible with the people of the South, and that every opportunity would be embraced to that end. In conclusion he assured the delegation that he would communicate their statements to the President, by whom he was satisfied they would be carefully considered. The committee departed, seemingly well pleased with the interview, and will now visit the President at Long Branch. — Chronicle.

A girl at Terre Haute, who had been made speechless some time before by measles, swung so high on the Fourth that she screamed with fright and wholly recovered her speech.

The first white woman hanged in Georgia was named Eberhart, and she was executed in 1785. The last one also bore the same name, and the Eberharts talk of emigrating from that State.

TO THE WEST! TO THE WEST!

Before making your arrangements to follow the advice of the "thousands who have already gone," it would be well to consider what has been done to make the journey to your "Homes in the West" as pleasant and free from danger as human skill and foresight can accomplish.

By consolidation and construction, a road has been put into operation on the shortest possible line from Nashville, Tenn., to St. Louis, "the fairest City of the world."

ST. LOUIS & SOUTHEASTERN RAILWAY, has, during the past year, earned an enviable reputation by its smooth track, prompt time, sure connections, and the magnificence of its passenger equipment. Its trains are made up of new and commodious day cars, provided with the celebrated Miller coupler and platform, and the Westinghouse air-brake.

It is positively the only line running Pullman Palace Drawing-Room Sleeping Cars through without change from Nashville to St. Louis. No other line pretends to offer such advantages, either in distance, time, or equipment. Why, then, journey by circuitous routes? Do not be induced to purchase tickets to St. Louis or the West by any other line, remember that the "St. Louis & Southeastern" is the shortest, cheapest, quickest, best and only line under one management from Nashville to St. Louis, and is from 60 to 200 miles the shortest to St. Louis, Kansas City, Omaha, Denver, California, Texas, and all western points. It is also the "Chicago Shortest Line," via Evansville.

You can secure the cheapest rates for yourself and your movables on application, in person or by letter, to CHARLES McCABE, Southern Passenger Agent, near College Street Depot, Nashville, Tenn., or to the undersigned.

W. B. DAVENPORT, General Ticket Agent, St. Louis. No trouble to answer questions. July 25 57-6m

Prospectus for 1873.

SIXTH YEAR.

THE ALDINE,

An illustrated monthly journal, universal-ly admitted to be the handsomest period-ical in the world. A representative and champion of American taste.

NOT FOR SALE IN BOOK OR NEWS STORES.

THE ALDINE, WHILE ISSUED WITH all the regularity, has none of the temporary or timely interest characteristic of ordinary periodicals. It is an elegant miscellany of pure, light and graceful litera-ture, and a collection of pictures, the most specimens of artistic skill, in black and white. Although each succeeding number affords a fresh pleasure to its friends, the real value and beauty of THE ALDINE will be most appreciated after it has been bound up at the close of the year. While other publications may claim superior cheapness, as compared with THE ALDINE, the value of THE ALDINE is not in its cheapness, but in its conception—alone and unapproached—absolutely without competition in price or character. The possessor of a complete volume cannot duplicate the quality of fine paper and engravings in any other number of volumes, for ten times its cost, and then there are the chromes besides!

ART DEPARTMENT.

Notwithstanding the increase in the price of subscription last fall, when THE ALDINE assumed its present noble proportions and representative character, the edition was more than doubled during the past year, proving that the American public appreciate, and will support, a sincere effort in the cause of Art. The publishers, anxious to justify the ready acceptance thus demonstrated, have exerted themselves to the utmost to develop and improve the work; and the plans for the coming year, as unfolded by the monthly issues, will astonish and delight even the most sanguine friends of THE ALDINE.

The publishers are authorized to announce designs from many of the most eminent artists of America. In addition, THE ALDINE will reproduce examples of the best foreign masters, selected with a view to the highest artistic success and greatest general interest, avoiding such as have become familiar through photographs, or copies of other kind. The quarterly tinted plates, for 1873, will reproduce some of John S. Davis' immortal sketch-drawings appropriate to four seasons. These plates, appearing in the issues for January, April, July, and October, would be alone worth the price of a year's subscription.

The popular feature of a copiously-illustrated "Christmas" number will be continued. To possess such a valuable epitome of the art world, at a cost so trifling, will command the subscriptions of thousands in every section of the country, but as the usefulness and attractiveness of THE ALDINE can be enhanced, in proportion to the numerical increase of its supporters, the publishers propose to make "assurance doubly sure" by the following unparalleled offer of

PREMIUM CHROMOS FOR 1873.

Every subscriber to THE ALDINE, who pays in advance for the year 1873, will receive without additional charge a pair of beautiful oil chromos, after J. S. Hill, the eminent English painter. The pictures entitled "The Village Belle" and "Crossing the Moor" are 4 1/2 x 6 inches—painted from 25 different plates, requiring 15 impressions and time to perfect each picture. The same chromos are sold for $30 per pair in the art stores. As it is the determination of the conductors to keep THE ALDINE out of the reach of competition, every department, the chromos will be sold correspondingly ahead of any that can be offered by the Weekly edition. Every subscriber will receive a certificate, over the signature of the publishers, guaranteeing that the chromos delivered shall be equal to the samples furnished the agent, or the money will be refunded. The distribution of this grade, free to the subscribers of THE ALDINE, will mark an epoch in the history of art, and considering the unprecedented cheapness of the price for THE ALDINE itself, the marvel falls little short of a miracle, even to those best acquainted with the value of the inventive genius and improved mechanical appliances. (For illustrations of these chromos see Nov. issue of THE ALDINE.)

THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT

will continue under the care of Mr. Richard Henry Stoddard, assisted by the best writers and poets of the day, who will strive to have the literature of THE ALDINE always in keeping with its artistic attractions.

TERMS:—Not less than FIVE DOLLARS per annum, in advance, with oil-chromes free. THE ALDINE will accept no subscription, there will be no reduced or club rate; cash for subscription must be sent to the publishers direct, or handed to the local agent, without responsibility to the publishers, except in cases where the certificate is given, and the fact-simile signature of Jas. Sutton & Co.

AGENTS WANTED.—Any person wishing to act permanently as a local agent, will receive full and prompt information by applying to JAS. SUTTON & CO., Publishers, No. 58 Maiden Lane, New York.

AS A FAMILY PAPER, The Times will have no superior; it will be free from all appeals to vulgar and impure tastes, and may be safely admitted to every domestic circle.

AS A REPUBLICAN JOURNAL, The Times will be devoted, as in the past, to an intelligent and firm support of the Republican Party. Its course in reference to the Tammany Ring, at a time when all the other daily papers in New York obstructed and discouraged its efforts, attests its sincerity in the cause of Reform. The Times stood alone, in demanding Reform from 1859 to the close of 1871, and there is no sincere and honest proposal for Reform, in any branch of the Government, which will not be heartily supported by the Times. It will not conspire in assisting ambitious politicians or demagogues to reach power under false pretenses. It will not encourage defection from the Republican Party, which is still the party of progress, security and national prosperity. It will sustain with all the force and influence at its command, the principles and policy which have rendered that party so justly famous in our history. It will advocate those measures by which the honor, the peace, and the prosperity of the nation can be best secured and promoted, and will constantly study the wants of the people rather than the wishes of the politicians.

THE NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES Is published every Tuesday and Friday, and contains all the agricultural and literary matter of the Weekly edition, and a full and careful compilation of editorial and news features of the Daily.

Terms of the Semi-Weekly Times: One copy, one year, $2.50; two copies, one year, $3.50; ten copies, one year, $25.00; and one extra copy free.

We especially call the attention to the following testimonials of the Paint: C. P. Knight, Esq.—Dear Sir: I have used Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on my dwelling last Spring, and am much pleased with it, and it looks as well now as when first painted, and consider it a good Paint. Yours, truly, Cresswell P. O., Harford county, Md., Feb. 6th, 1873.

THE PLAINS, FAUCETT CO., VA. Feb. 6th, 1873. Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The Paint came safely to hand as ordered—two kegs, five gallons each, and three buckets, one gallon each. As practice was slack, I did the job myself. Two weeks (not constant work) completed the house two coats. The last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that for enamel-like hardness, body, and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I saved sixty-five dollars by the operation, which is an item just now with Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabbled in such stock as testimonials, but I feel so forcibly the superiority of your "Patent Paint" to the wares of our people, in excellency of material, in beauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed" that I give you free permission, (if it is desirable to you), to make what use you think proper of this letter. Very respectfully and truly, S. MCGILL, M. D.

TO THE PUBLIC.—It affords me much pleasure to state that in July, 1871, Front Street Theatre was painted inside and out with "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint," for which C. P. Knight, No. 93 West Lombard Street, is agent, and, to testify to its superiority over any and all other paints for similar uses. In no private dwelling can paint possibly be subjected to the very severe test it undergoes at this establishment, where, during our daily cleaning, soap and sand are constantly applied to it, and yet it appears as good as new. Of the numerous advantages it possesses, over other paints, I will only mention its being mixed and ready for use in quantities to suit purchasers, its quickly drying properties, which saves much time in the execution of work were paint is needed, and its very perceptible tenacity, which imparts beauty and durability to the objects on which it is used. As such I most earnestly recommend it to the merchants and tradesmen of our city, believing it will give them greater satisfaction than they can possibly anticipate. WM. E. SINN, Front Street Theatre, CHAMBERSBURG, December 10th, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—The paints we received from you have been applied to several of our own buildings and to those of our friends, and have given entire satisfaction in covering qualities, in gloss, and in adaptability to all kinds of surface of material and we cheerfully recommend it, especially to that class of consumers who have to depend upon unknown parties, or painters to mix and furnish materials, wherein we have found most deception. Yours, truly, JACOB STOFFER & SON, BALTIMORE, April 25, 1873.

FROM HON. JOHN WETHERED. Mr. C. P. Knight—At the recommendation of a friend, I was induced to apply your patent "Bradley's" paint to my house. I have pleasure in stating that it has proved highly satisfactory, covering more surface than you promised, is more economical, carries better gloss than ordinary paint, and is free from disagreeable odor. Yours, Respectfully, JOHN WETHERED, BALTIMORE, December 27th, 1873.

C. P. Knight, Esq., Agent for Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint—Dear Sir:—The paint purchased from you we will cheerfully endorse as the best of any kind we have ever used. Its covering qualities is everything desired, drying promptly and with a hard gloss which must, we think, resist the action of all kinds of weather. Our own experience, and we can recommend it with certainty, and intend to use it on all occasions where we desire a good job of work. Very Respectfully, EMART & QUARTLEY, 270 W. Baltimore St. PLASTERERS, SIGN and Fresco Painters, No. 93 W. Lombard Street, Baltimore.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir:—I am very happy to inform you that your "Patent Enamel Paint" has given entire satisfaction. I prefer it to any paint I have ever seen used, and recommend it for durability and beauty as paramount to any other. Very Respectfully, C. P. KNIGHT, Sole Agent, No. 93 W. Lombard Street, Baltimore.
